

Dear FCC:

Please reject the NAB petition 04-160. In an age of liberalizing markets, we do not need to be protecting industries who cannot compete with new technology that consumers freely choose. Creative destruction, reallocation of resources driven by millions exercising voluntary choice. To impede and delay this process is illogical and unproductive.